EDGERTON NOTES

The February meeting of the Womens Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Challener, attended by thirteen members.

The President, Mrs. Warnock presided.

The meeting was opened with one verse of "O Canada" and repeating the creed.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

With reference to Red Cross work, previously discussed, letters was received from Mrs. Hays stating her inability of taking up the work. President agreed to interview Mrs. McTaggart, re taking up this class, and if unable to get her services, that the class be dropped.

Report of January meeting of W. I. in the "Chronicle" was read by Mrs. Hallett.

After a discussion as to ways and means of raising funds, a motion by Mrs. Wheeler, with Mrs. Eakin as seconder, that the W. I. serve a 25c buffet lunch after Mr. Kennedy's play, in Corbett's Hall, was carried. Each member is to bring cake or sandwiches as planned.

A paper on the origin of St Valentine's Day was read by Mrs. Clendenen.

Current events were given by Mrs. Wheeler.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. John Milne assisted by Mrs. Hallett.

Committee appointed for March meeting programme, Mrs. Clendenen and Mrs. Trauner.

Meeting adjourned.

Last week was a real strenuous week in our burg. Firstly, Massrs Milne, Challenger and Pawsy representing Edgerton in the Edmonton Spiel and considering conditions which they were up against, they made a very good showing. Next year they hope to profit by the experience gained this year.

Next time, The Edgerton Rebekah staged a real old-time dance on Wednesday evening which was a great success. Charlie Kelly, in the role of floor manager, kept the crowd busy to the strains of old time music supplied by Jamie Taylor, with his little daughter at the piano accompanying. Several of those present with musical bent turned in and helped. A real supper of good eats occupied the midnight hour, and again the dancers made merry. The "Beekies" contingent fund got a nice little boost for all their trouble. We do not think we have seen prettier decorations than was in evidence that night in the hall. Those lodge members know how to do things.

Next, we come to perhaps the most strenuous of the whole lot. A varied concert of song, story, sketches, choruses, musical numbers.

REPORT OF THE CONVENTION OF ALBERTA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES

The eighth Annual Chauvin Seed Fair and Poultry Show was successfully staged last Saturday in the I.O.O.F. hall, by the Chauvin Agricultural Society. Despite the bad state of the trails and the cold weather prevailing the number of entries in the grain and potato classes was maintained though there was a smaller number of exhibits in the poultry classes.

Mr. N.G. Townsley, of the government seed grain plant at Edmonton, acted as judge. He stated that with the exception of the grain shown in the irrigated districts, the exhibits at Chauvin were just as good as he had seen anywhere in the province this season.

Though fewer in number than those of last year, Barred Rocks predominating with Wyandottes a good second.

During the afternoon the lady directors, Mesdames J. Toth; H. G. Folkins and T. H. Armour were busily engaged serving teas and judging from the patronage they received their efforts were highly appreciated.

PROSPERITY NOTES

A very exciting curling game took place last Wednesday afternoon, when three prosperity boys J. White, F. Harris and C. Harris played a girl's rink composed of E. Burke, I. Harris and F. Cahill. The girls were defeated by one point, the score being 7-6.

We are pleased to see some of the Prosperity young men back home after spending the winter away. Messrs N. and R. Harris have returned from their trip to Winnipeg where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. H. Hassall has returned from Olds, Alberta, where he has been attending the Agricultural College.

A Prosperity men's rink composed of B. Hassall (skip), supported by I. Neil, W. Harris and C. Miller had a game in town last Wednesday evening. We believe the score was 30 to 1 in favour of the town men.

The young people held their monthly meeting in the school on Saturday evening.

NOTICE TO DAIRYMEN, LIVE STOCK, AND POULTRY PRODUCERS

On Saturday, March 7th, meetings will be held at points on the C.N.R. line for the purpose of discussing and giving information regarding the three co-operative pools now in the process of formation.

These pools are being organized as the result of a demand made by the Producers and it is now up to the producers to show their confidence in co-operative marketing by signing the contracts.

Committees will be organized at all points to complete the sign-up and give every farmer an opportunity to associate himself with his neighbors in merchandising his product.

The meeting at Chauvin will be held at 2.00 p.m.

If you think the co-operative plan is right come in and Insupport it

If you think it is wrong come in and criticise it

At all events come in and hear it discussed

REPORT OF THE CONVENTION OF ALBERTA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES

At the Convention held in Calgary February 4-5 there were about 80 delegates representing an equal number of provincial societies and many visitors amongst whom were the Hon. George Hoadley, Dean Howes, S. G. Carlyle, vice fairs superintendent, and live stock commissioner, W. Stephens, seed grain Dept. and others. The above mentioned also addressed the Convention during the sessions.

Mr. Talbot, the retiring fairs superintendent was the first speaker. After greeting the delegates he expressed his appreciation of the work done by the societies in general during 1924. Sixty-eight fairs had been given fair dates in 1924, and 12 seed fairs held, one good farm competition, 4 plowing matches and 15 poultry shows. The Dr. said he would like to see more stock judging competitions put on for the boys and girls. There was more need of good fairs than ever before, as there would be an influx of settlers that would require the various kinds of help such a society was best fitted to give in stock and good farming hints. He asked for co-operation of agricultural societies in dealing with the new comers. Speaking of the Secretary's bonds he advised the delegates to try to get a blanket bond, to facilitate work of his department. Personal bond was no longer acceptable; (I might say here that on advice of the board of directors he agreed not to insist on the blanket bond) He advised having a local committee to cut out inferior animals shown, but agreed afterwards that that would be no easy matter for any local party to do. He said that in every province the small fairs were being amalgamated and thought it was a step in the right direction.

Deputy Minister H. A. Craig in making his 15th annual address to the 20th Fairs Convention spoke optimistically of the future of Alberta's products in the world's market. His shipments were giving great satisfaction, one reason being the splendid packing system followed. Alberta's return for her dairying industry had in 20 years made an advance of $22,000,000.

In speaking of the benefits of co-operation he advised making use of the present agencies as far as possible. New machinery meant overhead expenses. The cost of production must be reduced in the interests of consumer and producer alike. He was enthusiastic on the subject of good farming competitions and would have every farmer beautify his home with trees, which would also provide windbreaks for stock.

Fortieth Anniversary of Canada's First Trans-Continental System Marks Centenary of Locomotive.

TWO events make 1925 notable in the annals of rail transportation. It marks the centenary of the locomotive engine and the fortieth anniversary of the completion of Canada's first transcontinental, the Canadian Pacific Railway's main line from Montreal to Vancouver. The first opened a new chapter in the history of the world; the second a new chapter in the history of Canada.

Looking back over the events of the intervening century it will readily be agreed that the introduction of the locomotive was one of the most important events in modern history. It has enriched the life of the Old World by delivering to it at low cost the products of the ends of the earth; while it has brought within the reach of the pioneer on the frontiers of civilization highly finished products which can be developed only where a numerous population makes possible a minute division of labor. It has given the settler in Northern Alberta, over 5,000 miles distant from London, a market in that great metropolis just as certain as that enjoyed by the English farmer. It has also made the same settler as much a customer of London as are the people of near-by countries.

The locomotive engine made its first appearance in Canada in 1837 on the Champlain and St. Lawrence Railroad. This road was only 16 miles long, and ran between the town of La Prairie on the St. Lawrence River and St. John's on the Richelieu. This railway was opened in 1856, being operated by horses during the first year.

However, it was not until with the incorporation of the Grand Trunk Railway in 1852 that the railway era in Canada really began. While a beginning had been made in 1837, still during the next fifteen years only 50 miles of line were added. The Grand Trunk linked up Ontario and Quebec, and gave both provinces direct connection with the Atlantic coast through Portland. It also laid the foundations for direct connection between that port and Chicago. Much railway building followed in Ontario. The next project of importance was the building of the Intercolonial, which was begun in 1853, and completed in 1876. This gave Ontario and Quebec direct connection through Canadian territory with a Canadian port on the Atlantic open all the year round. In the meantime an agitation for the building of a railway to connect Ontario and Quebec with the Pacific Coast culminated in the incorporation of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

On November 7th, 1885 at Craigellachie in Eagle Pass, a gorge in the Gold Range, British Columbia, Sir Donald A. Smith, afterwards Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, drove the last spike in the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, thus connecting Montreal with Vancouver. This was a notable event, not only in the history of Canada, but of the British Empire. By the connecting of the Pacific Coast with Montreal Canada secured its first transcontinental railway. Indeed, it was the first rail transcontinental on this continent, for while in 1869 the east coast of the United States was connected with San Francisco by rail, and several other rail connections have been added, still even now no single railway in the United States extends from Coast to Coast as does the Canadian Pacific in Canada. November 7th, a notable day for the British Empire, the Canadian Pacific provided a short cut from Britain to the Orient. As Sir Charles Tupper in his Reminiscences has pointed out, it brought Yokohama three weeks nearer to London than it was by the Suez Canal.

The history of the Canadian Pacific Railway is the history of Greater Canada. When it was first proposed there were only four provinces in Confederation, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Between 1870 and 1873 Prince Edward Island, Manitoba, and British Columbia entered, the last mentioned on the express condition that it would be connected with Eastern Canada by a line of railway. At that time Manitoba was a mere postage stamp in dimension, and the regions between it and the Rockies were unorganized territory.

The promise of the Canadian Pacific not only brought British Columbia into Confederation, and gave Canada a window on the Pacific; but the building of it, by establishing direct and quick communication between the east and the west fixed the destiny of the vast regions west of the Great Lakes and north of the 49th parallel. The British Empire, and British Columbia by the economic link of steel. Fifty years ago it was by no means certain that the territories between Lake Superior and the Rockies would not pass into the hands of the United States. The shortest route from Eastern Canada to Port Garry, now Winnipeg, was via Chicago and St. Paul. Trade moved north and south rather than east and west, so that political absorption seemed likely to follow American economic penetration.

It is with the development of Western Canada that the fortunes of the Canadian Pacific have been indissolubly linked. As it has expanded the West has grown. In 1855 there were hardly more than 180,000 people in the whole country west of the Great Lakes. As a result of the Riel Rebellion the country was also in a state of utter confusion. Still the year 1855 marks the real beginning of the period of western development. The country continued its policy of aggressive construction by adding feeders to its main line. This encouraged settlement, for settlers felt themselves secure as long as they were not too far from the railway. Note how the population on the plains began to increase. In 1855, when there were not more than 1,000 miles of railway there were only 130,000 people in that vast territory between Winnipeg and Calgary and Edmonton, one-half of whom were located in Manitoba. Within the next 20 years, the prairie provinces, with about 4,500 miles of railway, had a population of 800,000. By 1925 these provinces had 20,000 miles of line, of which 8,500 belonged to the Canadian Pacific, and their population was 2,000,000.

The driving of the last spike at Craigellachie also marked the opening by the company of the most aggressive and sustained immigration and colonization campaign that Canada has witnessed. From that time to the present the company has spent nearly $70,000,000 on its immigration and colonization activities. And it got the immigrants too. During the years preceding the incorporating of the company immigrants were coming to Canada at the rate of only 36,000 a year. This was a very light inflow, for away back in 1825 as many as 52,000 were received; but during the period 1881-91 immigration was very nearly trebled; that is it came at the rate of 32,000 a year. Indeed, during the last two decades of the last century Canada at the rate of only 36,000 a year. This was a very light inflow, for away back in 1825 as many as 52,000 were received; but during the period 1881-91 immigration was very nearly trebled; that is it came at the rate of 32,000 a year. Indeed, during the last two decades of the last century the Government seems to have left immigration pretty much to the company, for during the 1882-1902 period, the total expenditure on immigration was only $5,475,000, as compared with an appropriation of $3,400,000 this year. Through the company's agencies have come the greater proportion of the over 5,000,000 immigrants received during the last 40 years.

Concidering with the driving of the last spike at Craigellachie the company launched out as a promoter of foreign trade and transoceanic travel. In this department not only has it been by far the most important factor in Canada, but one of the most important within the British Empire, which is saying a great deal, when it is recalled that the latter is the greatest commercial unit that the world has ever seen. Within less than nine months after this spike had been driven there arrived at Port Moody, the then terminus of the Pacific, a brig with the first cargo from Japan for the railway. That little brig the "W. E. Flint" of 800 tons, has grown into a great fleet of over 400,000 tons, sailing on two oceans, and linking Europe, America, Asia, and Oceania. In 1887 a regular trans-Pacific service was established, and in 1902 a similar service was launched on the Atlantic. Began originally as a feeder to the freight department of the railway, the passenger feature of these steamship services has now become of chief importance. As an evidence of how the trans-Pacific trade has grown it may be said that in 1925 Canada sold to China only $5,972 worth of products and to Japan only $217,800 worth, whereas during the 12 months ending October, 1924, she sold to China were $14,612,482 and to Japan $28,870,033.

the delegates this Department was not out to kill the small farms. What was wanted was the realization that to earn the grant they must be worthy of it. In this connection he warmly praised the Provincial board of directors for the way they had carried out the new regulations of the Department, and said that the annual association grant for expenses in the work, which had been cut in half last year, would again be raised to the old figure in the Department estimates. He felt justified in doing this, because he believed that when an agricultural society was functioning properly there was no better society a farmer can belong to. The estimates for fairs grants had been cut down from $164,000 to $61,000.

What he would like to encourage now was a little elasticity. For instance if a district had a certain breed of stock which was home or export market he advised substituting such a class for some or other of the regular classes recognized by the Green Book issued by the Department and board of directors. The understanding to be that the money value allowed for the regulation class should be used for the local product instead. There were products grown, for instance down in Brooks in the irrigation area, which other unirrigated districts could not hope to grow. Also there was a profitable business being made in the Pridio and Millerville district of the raising of hunters, polo ponies, thorough breeds etc., which were making big money in the markets of New York, and should be encouraged. Speaking of the responsibility of each society in making the rules and regulations govern their prize list he reminded them that a society had ethics even as the professions and should find pride in living up to them. He would like to see the agricultural fair devote more classes to young people at the "plastic age." He was inclined to blame the duplication of organizations we have in the province on the failure of fairs directors to live up to their privileges. There was no society which meant more for the farmer in a financial sense than a well run agricultural society. He felt sure the fairs directors were beginning to see that themselves.

W. J. Stephens of the seed grain Department said the little local seed fair constituted the stepping stone to winning at the Provincial and International Shows. A farmer got good experience in preparing for these by starting at home. He said Alberta as regards its seed wheat prospects was better this year than last, while in seed oats while these are short of high quality, this Department finds a germination strength of 89 per cent out of the bin. There was no good barley seed in the province. Saskatchewan required one million bushels of alfalfa to Idaho. Pincher Creek was also exporting Timothy seed of the finest, and Alberta's corn exhibit made the U.S. growers stare incredulously. In effect Alberta was the greatest seed producing province in the world.

In giving some particulars of the Alberta seed grower's Association he said every farmer should aspire to be a member. A member had to be a clean farmer. Nothing so disastrous to the seed business as weeds. The situation in regard to Weeds in Manitoba had now got so bad that there is not one district in Manitoba that can safely ship a clean carlot of grain. Ontario is clean, due to diversified farming and vigilance. Going at present rate it would only be a matter of fifteen years before Alberta was

Your Farm is a Business Proposition

YOUR farm is as much a going concern as a factory, a dry goods store or a railroad system. Your farm is as dependent as any other business on a policy of sound, forward-looking financing designed to meet the various situations that occur in the life of a farmer.

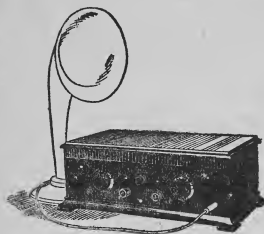

If you will regard your farm in this light—as a clean-cut business proposition—you will find it helpful to form a connection with the Bank of Montreal—a bank that has served the farmers of Canada for more than a century.

LOCAL NOTES OF INTEREST

Mr. John Alger accompanied Mr. Goodall and Teddy, and is thinking of locating in this district. We extend a welcome to Mr. Alger and hope that he may long remain a citizen of Chauvin.

About two years ago a system of over-hauling that was now to Chauvin was introduced at Saker's. Long profits and high prices were knocked from their pedestals at Sakers. Most every one appreciates this move and show their appreciation in a substantial manner by dealing at at Sakers.

Get the habit, get the Quality get the price at Saker's.

Sell that Beef Hide to Parcels and Foxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Eardley of Ribstone, are leaving tonight for Victoria, where they intend to reside.

The date set for Chauvin Fair is August 7th.

A box social and dance will be held in the Park Valley School on Friday, March 13th. Everybody Welcome. Ladies please bring baskets.

The Chauvin hockey team will engage the Edgerton boys in a match at Chauvin on Friday, March 6th at 7.30 p.m.

The Edgerton and Chauvin hockey teams engaged in a game at Edgerton last week. The resulting score being 4-0 in favor of Edgerton.

AUCTION SALE

Preliminary announcement is made of a sale to be held some time in March on the Joe Pelletier farm by George Reynolds auctioneer. Watch for further details.

AUCTION SALE

An Auction sale will be held at Chauvin Tuesday March 10th, by George Reynolds, Auctioneer, of household goods and barn, the property of L. E. Roy, who is leaving this district. For further particulars see posters.

MARSDEN DOINGS

The Marsden people intend holding two Concerts and Dances in March. The first one is on March 6th and the second on March 18th.

Mr. Fred Scott was a visitor to Saskatoon last week as a delegate to the School Trustees Convention.

W. L. A. NOTES

The Ladies Auxiliary of Westminster church will hold their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, March 12th at Mrs. Montjoy's home.

C. G. I. T. NOTES

The C.G.I.T. Busy Bee Society held their monthly social at the home of Mrs. Parcels.

Games were played until 8 o'clock. All then went skating till about 9.30, when they returned to Mrs. Parcels where lunch was served. Games were again played until ten o'clock when the party dispersed.

PROSPERITY Y.P.C. WILL HOLD CONCERT & DANCE

MANY HOMESTEADS TAKEN UP

During the month of January 233 free grant homesteads were taken up in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, an increase of 13 over the entries recorded for the corresponding month last year. During the same month, 47 soldier grant entries were filed, a decrease of one compared with January 1924. Of the homesteads, 38 were taken up in Manitoba, 117 in Saskatchewan, 73 in Alberta and five in British Columbia. Of the soldier grant entries, 9 were in Manitoba, 25 in Saskatchewan, 9 in Alberta and one in British Columbia. The homesteads and soldier grants totaled 44,800 acres.

like Manitoba. The aim of this Association was to improve the commercial value of our grains, which it was doing. It was his experience that the premium winners were all registered seed growers.

Hugh Macintosh one of the directors, also gave an address on the value of using pure seed.

Various resolutions put forward, and approved by the convention were, in regard to herds, asking that 1 pure bred sire and 1 grade cow and one grade heifer should be allowed by the Green Book 'will be permitted if substituted'. That where there is a local industry which can command a profitable market, such as the raising of polo ponies, hunters or thorough breeds or hit-class saddle horses, that a district fair should have power to substitute such a class for some less popular class. (This is likely to be passed by the minister). The resolution asking that a fair which has not held a seed fair in the spring should be allowed to show threshed grain at summer fair was amended to read: "Must be last year's grain," no fair can exhibit threshed grain after August 31st.

Resolution asking that provincial seed fair should be held at the same time as Fairs Convention. Passed unanimously. Mr. Hoadley promised to do what he could, but was afraid it would not be easy, as it was really a matter of which convention drew the bigger crowd, and the U.P. convention was greater in numbers, if not in interest.

Officers of the Association for 1925 are:

Rufus Cates, Oyen, President; Hugh Macintosh, MacLeod, Vice-Pres. Harold Huxley, Lloydminster. Sec'y-Treas.

Directors North: J. G. Clark, Irma; W. Sutton, Vermilion; Mrs. Armour, Chauvin.

Directors South: John Wilson, Innisfail; H. F. Nestor, Ceeceford; E. L. Richardson, Calgary; J. F. Anderson, Raymond.

NOTES FROM NORTH EAST

The Manitou Lake Ladies Aid have held many successful whist drives, and last Friday week added another enjoyable evening to their string. Mrs. John Patterson winning first prize, after tying with Mrs. Bergman thus taking second. Mrs. Watson got the clothes pegs. H. L. Johannes secured gent's first prize, with F. Wright a close second. Mr. Watson got the soap.

Then on Friday evening March 6th the newly formed Manitou

Lake Agricultural Society will hold a whist drive and dance in the Fram School. This, we understand, is the first of a series throughout the district. Now it's up to the Fram district to get behind this movement.

A very enjoyable and highly successful evening was held in Marsden on Wednesday 18th. The proceeds amounted to $86.00 which sum will be utilized for community purposes. The program was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd. Mr. Bruce during the evening explained the working of the newly formed Agricultural Society. After supper dancing was indulged in until shortly after 1 a.m. The program was as follows.

Selection: by Orchestra Recitation; Mrs. A. Wells Song; Ralph Knutson Selection; Mrs. Brown Selection; Fred N. Scott Song W. G. Pritchett Violin Solo; Henry Loy Trio; Mrs. Proctor and party Sketch; Mrs. Harry Scott, Miss Newport, Clarence McInnes A. S. Ringer

While writing these notes I have by my side a publication "The Caduceus" (The Staff Magazine of the Canadian Bank of Commerce). In this interesting book is an article under the heading "A Saskatchewan Holiday Resort."

A Saskatchewan Holiday Resort

Before the white man's occupancy of western Canada, the Manitou Lake district, tributary to the new village of Marsden, was doubtless one of favorite Indian haunts. Situated as it is in the park belt it offers many friendly sheltering bluffs of poplar and willow, while the lake itself is of healing mineral water recognized by scientists as possessing curative qualities for rheumatism, eczema, and other ailments to which the human family is subject. Hence its name "Mantou" i.e., the "Great Spirit" of the North American Indians.

Manitou Lake covers some fifty square miles and contains two islands. One of these has an area of one thousand acres, with fresh water springs. Myriads of wild geese, cranes and ducks make this district their feeding ground in the fall, while the island provides a safe refuge at night and a splendid watering place. Sports men from Vancouver and other Canadian cities and also those from cities in the United States who have visited this district describe it as a hunter's paradise.

The north shore of the lake provides a natural picnic ground. The beach is sand, with a gradual slope, and bathing is safe for all. During Chautauqua week and the time of the Annual Spots day many campers pitch their tents and camp life is enjoyed to the fullest extent. Others who prefer the comforts of home life, have built cosy cottages among the bluffs.

To many people in the province of Saskatchewan, Manitou Lake means little Manitou near Watrous because of the more central location of that lake, but that the Marsden district is served by a railroad the Greater Manitou lake in the Marsden district is attracting the attention to which it is entitled.

BRADY WHIST DRIVE

A very successful whist drive and dance was held in the Brady School last Friday evening under the auspices of the Manitou Lake Ladies Aid. A splendid crowd gathered and a most enjoyable time was spent. The prize winners were as follows.

Ladies
1. Mrs. John Patterson
2. Miss Mamie Masson (Booby) Mrs. Bergman
Gents

1. Mr. Frank Wright
2. Mr. Edwin Wein (Booby) Mr. H. L. Johannes
A sumptuous lunch was then handed round by the ladies, and after everyone had partaken fully and freely, dancing was indulged in until 5 a.m. when everyone went home tired but happy.

During the evening a presentation was made of a handsome tobacco pouch to Mr. Kendal W. Coe. Mrs. Bergman thanked Mr. Coe for having taken charge of their whist drives for the Ladies Aid, and asked the acceptance of the present as a token of appreciation of his services. The recipient suitably replied. The next meeting of the Aid will take place on Saturday next (7)

OLD TIMES DANCE

AT BRADY

There will be a dance held in Brady School on Friday evening March 27th. This will take the form of an Old Times dance. Admission will be 75 cents. Proceeds will be devoted to play ground equipment. Ladies please bring baskets. Come and have a real time, and thus help this praiseworthy object.

MONEY IN GREEN PEAS

One crop of green peas grown under contract for the cannery at Emo, Rainy River district, Ontario, last summer paid for the farm of 160 acres, according to advices received by the colonization department of the Canadian National Railways. The land, with improvements, cost $7,500. Last year 100 acres was cropped to peas and $72 an acre was realized from the harvest. In addition to the peas a large amount of the green straw was converted into ensilage for winter cattle feed.

treated to midnight hockey. At 1.20 a.m. the final score showed Chauvin with a reasonably white coat of Calceimine or lime wash or whatever you call it, applied by the local aggregation. Of course we don't mean that Chauvin did not or could not play hockey, they did; but they couldn't get through our defence and were checked into submission, that is the simple story. The score was 4-0 and the referee was Jack Gerrie; the hour was unearthly, and the weather was chilly, so the whole crowd hid themselves back to the hall and the dance proceeded, with everyone holding the opinion that it had been a busy night.

Let me see; no, the week's activities did not finish with the dance. On Saturday evening, another midnight found an industrious body deeply engrossed in some engaging occupation, but that is another story.

How's that for a week's fun in a little place like this?

Of course you know we have not touched on the gladiatorial struggle going on for possession of the "Lawrence Memorial," that seems just to be taken as common place.

Under the direction of Mrs Cleland, the Dramatic Club are putting on another play which they are to present to the public on the 17th and 18th of March. Bills will soon be out.

They are made-to-measure!

It is quite logical that clothing will not render a service of greater degree than the quality of the materials and labor involved in its making will withstand.

Men who have worn Leiley-Trimble Clothes know that they represent honest value,—that every step in their construction embodies lofty ideals, honest workmanship and pure woolen fabrics. Their design is obviously in good taste and in every instance they fit well because they are tailored to the individual type of the client.

It is small wonder, why, from among the many discerning dressers prefer this "one." Come in today and see the character of the fabrics.

The entertainment consisted of nigger songs and dialogues and three boxing bouts. Mr. Besterd was declared the winner of the latter and presented with the Butteville ribbons. In the future he will hang out his shingle as a trainer. The bouts were as follows: Besterd vs. Baynham; R. Furber vs. E. Fahner; and L. Smith vs. C. Carrill. The bout between Furber and Fahner was fast and furious. Ed says it's good sport but hard on the eyes.

Charo Carrill was a little light but he had some pile driver blows.

Lunch followed after which dancing commenced and continued till 5 a.m. Music was furnished by Furber Bros. and C. Carrill on violins.

The Airle U. F. A. will hold their next meeting in March 11th at 8 o'clock sharp. A social will follow the meeting.
